Education

(2023-2025)

GRIT ACADEMY

WEB DEVELOPER SPECIALIZATION E-COMMERCE

I am currently studying the third semester at Grit Academy's web development course in e-commerce. The training includes HTML, CSS, JS, Node.js, React and Mysql/PHP . Personally, I am very interested in JS, PHP & Wordpress because you can create amazing websites. The training challenges me to create my own projects with different techniques and tools. I'm learning Wordpress/woocommerce and Shopify this semester.

BLEKINGE INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

WEB PROGRAMMING

I took courses in web programming and learned the basics of HTML, CSS, C++, Java. I discovered that I wanted to do something more professional and therefore decided to study at a university of applied sciences.
